Dated 20th September 1968.

Claimant.—

Sri Shivappa Karigar and Sri Rudrappa Halagali of M/s. Navabharat Slate Works, Bagalkot.

Vs.

Respondent.—

The Management of M/s. Navabharat Slate Works, Bagalkot.

1. In the order of reference No. FCL 599 LLD 67, dated 20th October 1967, the Government of Mysore has referred for adjudication before this Court, the dispute between the Claimant and the Respondent, mentioning the following points for determination, viz:

(1) Is the employer of the Navabharat Slate Works Bagalkot justified in dismissing Sri Shivappa Karigar from service and in denying work to Sri Rudrayya Halagali

(2) Are the Workmen justified in demanding that Sri Shivappa Karigar and Sri Rudrayya Halagali reinstated withback wages.?

If not to what other relief are they entitled to?

2. When the case was called at Bagalkot camp for hearing on 20th September 1968, Claimant was represented by Sri N. K. Upadhyaya, President of the Workers Union and the Respondent was represented by Sri V. N. Apte, (Law Officer).

3. Sri N. K: Upadhyaya undertakes to file the letter of authority. He is permitted to do so. I also permit him to appear and plead in this case U/s. 32 of the advocates Act as amended in 1962, n this particular case.

4. Sri N. K. Upadhyaya submits that the I Party's Workers Union does not press the claims of the 2 delinquent works and that therefore the Union of Workers does not press its claims. Hence this claim of the union is rejected and dismissed as desired. Under the circumstances I make no order as to costs.

The Office of this Court is directed to submit true copies of this decision to the Secretary Food, Civil Supplies, and Labour Department, Government of Mysore, The Mysore Government Secretariat, Vidhana Soudha, Bangalore as required U/s. 15 of the I. D. Act, 1947
